But just like what I mention, I normally went there quite often.

what you did at this place

I did lots of things when I visited there. For example, taking photos of the bathing boxes, and having a bbq /picnics with friends

I often went there with my friends and went there with my parents twice when they visited me in Australia last year. Whenever I went there, it reminded me of the past, and the precious moment that we shared together.

I love this place very much, if I get a day off, I love to enjoy the stunning/ jaw-dropping sea view and breath-taking sunset, I can also catch some rays and expose myself to this beautiful scenery.

I remember there is one famous restaurant, called the bath. It's great to admire the spectacular sea view and enjoy the coffee there. Also, it provides the most delicious fish and chips. For just 10 bucks, it's quite cheap. Whenever I think of that, it makes my mouth water.

☆Do you like family parties or parties thrown by friends? Well, I do like friend parties more than family parties. You know, there is a obvious generation gap between parents and children. Although we both care about other very much, sometimes I can only share my happiness and sorrows with my friends. That is because we have similar experience, and share similar interest. In friend parties, I can enjoy more freedom. I can talk what I want to and I do not have to be overcautious about what I behave.
